

K-LOVE is one of only 3 radio stations that I will listen to or allow anyone else to listen to in my home or car. Other stations are mostly junk and you never know what the lyrics to songs are going to imply or just come right and say. This station focuses on good music and programming, and I know I can count on it. Please don't even consider replacing it with an LPFM station.